How can I download this software?I'm at a loss. No, not in the usual sense of New York City lacking in pizazz. I'm at a loss for words when I see the verbal barrage hurled by Rep. Jerry Nadler (D-N.Y.) and House Judiciary Committee Chairman Jerrold Nadler (D-N.Y.) aimed at Attorney General William Barr. This verbal barrage, which purports to have been authorized by Speaker Nancy Pelosi, is so devoid of merit that it can only be a desperate exercise in political theater to distract the American people from the "crime and cover-up" involving the Trump administration. NADLER: This week, Attorney General Barr testified before the Senate Judiciary Committee that he thought the Mueller report was satisfactory and concluded that Mueller's investigation did not establish a conspiracy between the Trump campaign and the Russian government. Barr produced an entirely different letter to Congress from March 24, summarizing the principal conclusions of the Mueller report. The conclusion reached by Barr and the Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein 3da54e8ca3
