NEW DELHI (Reuters) - A road bridge in the Indian city of Indore was damaged in a bridge collapse on Friday that killed at least 15 people and injured dozens more, officials said. Emergency services have been called in to the site in the central Indian state of Madhya Pradesh, where hundreds of people were blocked from crossing a road by a large pile of concrete blocks, heaped up to form a large wall. "A 20-foot long portion of the road bridge of the Indore Zomra gate collapsed on top of a bus," Mihir Sharma, one of the fire service's team leader, told reporters. ❖
